Power of Story

On Legacy

Tuesday, January 27, 3–4:30 p.m.
Egyptian Theatre, 328 Main St.

Power of Story: On Legacy will bring together artists, thinkers, and culture makers for a deeper look at the idea of legacy — what it means, who defines it, and how it evolves over time. Speakers will reflect on legacy as a balancing act between intention and interpretation, control and serendipity, exploring how stories outlive their creators and take on new meaning through audiences. It's a conversation about what lasts, what lingers, and what we hope to pass on.

Featuring: Alex Gibney (Knife: The Attempted Murder of Salman Rushdie), John Turturro (The Only Living Pickpocket in New York), Ta-Nehisi Coates (When A Witness Recants), Olivia Wilde (The Invite & I Want Your Sex)

Moderated by: Jia Tolentino (The New Yorker)

Everyone Has a Story: Four Decades of the Sundance Film Festival in Utah

Friday, January 30, 2–4:15 p.m.
The Marquis, 427 Main St.

As the 2026 Festival comes to a close — the culmination of our 43 years in Park City and Utah — we honor the transformative vision of founder Robert Redford and his belief that “everyone has a story.” This special event brings together artists, alumni, industry, veteran attendees, staff and volunteers, and the local community for a program of stories, shared memories, archive treasures, and legendary moments — some poignant, some funny — as we reflect on the many voices who have told the story of the Sundance Film Festival in Utah. More details on program and guests to be announced.

The Big Conversation

From Fire to Flight: Humans, Technology, and Time

Monday, January 26, 11 a.m.–12:15 p.m.
Filmmaker Lodge, 550 Main St.

Filmmaker Andrew Stanton (WALL-E) and screenwriter Colby Day (Spaceman) have explored themes of human connection to science and technology throughout their work, including the new film In the Blink of An Eye, which spans thousands of years of human history, from a Neanderthal family struggling to survive, to the work of an anthropologist (uncovering that past), to the mission of spacecraft — its sole human occupant and onboard sentient computer — bringing humanity to a distant planet. Stanton and Day are joined by moderator Dr. Heather Berlin.

Featuring: Andrew Stanton (WALL-E), screenwriter Colby Day (Spaceman)

Moderated by: Dr. Heather Berlin

Supported by the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation

Nouvelle Vague Live Commentary with Richard Linklater

Wednesday, January 28, 9:15–11:15 p.m.
Yarrow Theatre, 1800 Park Ave.

Longtime festival alumnus Richard Linklater and a special guest provide a live commentary track over a screening of Nouvelle Vague, taking the audience behind the scenes of Linklater's film, Godard's film, and the nature of independence in filmmaking itself.

Nouvelle Vague France

A reimagining of the making of Jean-Luc Godard's Breathless explores the youthful rebellion and creative chaos that shaped the French New Wave.

Director: Richard Linklater

Screenwriters: Holly Gent, Vincent Palmo Jr., Michèle Halberstadt, Laetitia Masson

Producers: Laurent Pétin, Michèle Pétin

Cast: Guillaume Marbeck, Zoey Deutch, Aubry Dullin

Free ticketed event! Doors open at 2 p.m. for cocktail hour with cash bar. Program begins at 3 p.m.

Must be 21 or older to attend, with valid, scannable ID. Ticket required for all attendees, including Festival pass holders; no passes or packages will be scanned for entry. Limit of 1 ticket per account at checkout.

Tickets to this free event will be available online starting January 13, with reservations closing on January 29 at 2 p.m. MT. Tickets may be available at the door if space permits, on a first-come, first-served basis.
